

You are cordially invited to the 1st Ajit Bhattacharjea Memorial Lecture.
Ajitda (1924-2011) was a renowned journalist, editor of two national dailies and also the editor of Jaiprakash Narain's Everyman's Weekly. Director of the Press Institute from 1995-2004, he was a lifelong advocate of the underprivileged Indian and an important proponent of the RTI. He was symbiotically associated with the RTI struggle that began in central Rajasthan from its early days in 1996.

This lecture will be delivered by Shri Gopalkrishna Gandhi

eminent speaker and ex-Governor of West Bengal. He will address the issue of leadership in post-independent India, speaking on Neta, Netritva aur Netagiri.

School for Democracy, Rajasthan
hosts this function in memory of Ajitda, founder member of the NCPRI.

The lecture will be held on 1st February, 2013,
at the main auditorium of the Pink City Press Club, 54 Narayan Singh Circle, Jaipur.
The function will begin at 6 pm.

Organisers: School for Democracy, MKSS,
Jan Hith Trust, RTI Manch and the NCPRI

---

Rsvp
Digvijay 08890464202 • Mukesh 09468862200